Notes to the Financial Statements

1. GOING CONCERN CONSIDERATIONS

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to a going concern, which assumes that the Company will be able to meet its obligations and continue its operations for its next fiscal year. Realization values may be substantially different from carrying values as shown and these financial statements do not give effect to adjustments that would be necessary to the carrying values and classification of assets and liabilities should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. At November 30, 2006, the Company had not yet achieved profitable operations, has a working capital surplus of $37,106, accumulated losses of $3,253,739 since its inception, and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business, all of which casts substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. It is suggested that these financial statements be read in conjunction with the Company's August 31, 2006 annual audited financial statements.

2. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. Mineral Interests and Deferred Exploration Costs

The Company is engaged in the exploration and development of mineral resource properties and records mineral interests at cost or at an ascribed amount if the consideration is common shares. The Company includes in costs the lease and option payments made on properties that are held under lease and option agreements. Costs and recoveries relating to exploration and development projects are deferred when it is probable that those costs are recoverable from future operations.

The amounts shown for mineral interests and deferred exploration costs represent accumulated or minimal costs and do not represent present or future values. The properties and carrying values are subject to periodic review for permanent impairment. The recoverability of these amounts is dependent upon the confirmation of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to successfully complete their development and upon subsequent profitable production.

b. Estimates and Fair Values

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying disclosures. Although these estimates are based on management's best knowledge of current events and actions the Company may undertake in the future, actual results ultimately may differ from the estimates.

3. ACCOUNTING POLICIES CONT'D

c. Financial Instruments

All significant financial assets, financial liabilities and equity instruments of the Company are either recognized or disclosed in the financial statements, together with other information relevant for making a reasonable assessment of future cash flows, interest rate risk and credit risk. Where practicable, the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities have been determined and disclosed; otherwise, only available information pertinent to fair value has been disclosed.

d. Environmental Issues

It is not possible to be certain that all aspects of environmental issues affecting the Company, if any, have been fully determined or resolved.

e. Flow-Through Common Shares

For income tax purposes, exploration expenditures funded by flow-through share arrangements are renounced to investors in accordance with income tax legislation. Share capital is reduced and future income tax liability is increased by the estimated cost of the renounce exploration expenditures. Drawdowns of future income tax liabilities resulting from the timing differences on exploration expenditures renounced to investors are credited to share capital.

f. Stock-Based Compensation Plans

The Company grants to its directors, employees and consultants incentive stock options to acquire shares in the Company in accordance with the terms of its stock option plan. For options granted prior to August 31, 2003, no compensation expense is recognized for these options when issued. Any consideration received on the exercise of options is credited to share capital. For options granted after September 1, 2003, the Company has adopted the new recommendations of the CICA Handbook Section 3870 "Stock-based compensation and other stock-based payments."
